

MONROE COUNTY INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
FINANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 5 of the Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation's ("Authority" or "Corporation") bylaws, the finance committee, shall have responsibility for the deposit and investment process and recommended policies concerning the Corporation's issuance and management of debt.

Duties of the Finance Committee

It shall be the responsibility of the finance committee to:

- Review proposals for the issuance of debt by the Corporation and its subsidiaries and to make recommendations concerning those proposals to the board.
- Make recommendations to the board concerning the level of debt and nature of debt issued by the Corporation.
- Make recommendations concerning the appointment and compensation of counsel, bond counsel, investment advisors and underwriting firms used by the authority, and to oversee the work performed by these individuals and firms on behalf of the authority.
- Meet with and request information from Corporation staff, independent auditors and advisors or outside counsel, as necessary to perform the duties of the committee.
- Retain, at the authority's expense, such outside counsel, experts and other advisors as the finance committee may deem appropriate.
- Review proposals relating to the repayment of debt or other long-term financing arrangements by the Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation.
- Annually review the authority's financing guidelines and make recommendations to the board concerning criteria that should govern its financings. These should include security provisions required for a bond financing undertaking, specific requirements of credit enhancements or additional guarantees used, such as a pledge of revenues, financial covenants or debt service reserves.
- Report annually to the Corporation's board how it has discharged its duties and met its responsibilities as outlined in the charter.
- Conduct an annual self-evaluation of its performance, including effectiveness and compliance with the charter and request the board approval for proposed changes.

Review the Corporation's Annual Budget

- Review the Corporation's proposed annual operating budget as presented by Corporation management for the upcoming fiscal year.
- Recommend the annual budget to the board for approval after incorporating necessary amendments.
- Monitor and report to the board on the Corporation's compliance with its adopted budget during the fiscal year (actual verses estimated budget) on a regular basis.

Oversee the Corporation's Investments

- Annually review the Corporation's investment policy and evaluate allocation of assets.
- Review and recommend to the board approval of the Corporation's annual investment report.
- Annually review the Corporation's audit of investments as provided by independent auditors.

- Recommend to the board the selection of investment advisors.

Assess the Corporation's Capital Requirements and Capital Plan

- Assess the financial requirements of the Corporation's capital plans. The assessment is to include current and future capital needs, a justification of why such capital expenditure is required and an explanation of funding sources for capital projects such as grants, issuance of debt or specified pay-as-you-go-resources.
- Review the financial aspects of major proposed transactions, significant expenditures, new programs and services, as well as proposals to discontinue programs or services and making action recommendations to the board.

Review Financial and Procurement Thresholds

- Review and make recommendations to the board regarding any proposed procurements submitted to the committee by the Corporation's procurement officer.
- Review and recommend changes to the Corporation's thresholds for procuring goods and services and procurement policy.
- Review and recommend changes to the Corporation's fee schedules.
- Review the scope and terms of the Corporation's insurance policies and liability coverage on an annual basis.

Composition of Committee and Selection of Members

The finance committee shall consist of not less than three independent members of the board of directors, who shall constitute a majority on the committee. If the board has less than three independent members, non-independent members may be appointed to the committee provided that the independent members constitute a majority of the committee. The Corporation's board shall appoint the finance committee members and the finance committee chair. Members shall serve on the committee at the discretion of the board. Members appointed to the committee shall have the background necessary to perform its duties.

Meetings

The finance committee shall meet at such times as deemed advisable by the chair, but not less than twice a year. The committee must meet prior to any debt issuance planned to be undertaken by the Corporation.

Members of the finance committee are expected to attend each committee meeting, in person or via telephone or videoconference. The finance committee may invite other individuals, such as members of management, auditors or other technical experts to attend meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary.

Meeting agendas shall be prepared prior to every meeting and provided to finance committee members along with briefing materials three (3) business days before the scheduled finance committee meeting. The finance committee may act only on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members or by unanimous consent. Minutes of these meetings shall be recorded.

A report of the committee's meeting shall be prepared and presented to the board at its next scheduled meeting following the meeting of the committee.
